Summary

Hi, I'm Tehreem Asghar

I'm a passionate Frontend Developer from Karachi, Pakistan, with a knack for solving complex problems with simple and effective solutions.

With expertise in Next.js, TypeScript, JavaScript, HTML, CSS and frameworks like Tailwind CSS, I love building dynamic, user-friendly, and responsive web applications. I'm committed to learning, growing, and making a positive impact through technology.

What I bring to the table:

Hands-on experience in modern web development

Creative problem-solving and clean code practices

Dedication to continuous learning and improvement

Achievements:

student leader in quarter 1 and quarter 2 in governor house

Mission: To turn ideas into impactful solutions while continuously enhancing my skills.

Let's Connect! I'd love to collaborate, learn, or discuss tech ideas.
